

"I see lots of people with great business ideas who get bogged down with employment issues & red tape and I say to them, do what I did, let Peninsula take care of these things for you. For a relatively small monthly fee they will save you both time & money and leave you to get on with building your business".

DUNCAN BANNATYNE

- We now get expert advice on any Employment Law issue and they are available to us 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- All our personnel related documentation is provided.
- They give us tribunal representation and pay the award if they lose.
- Peninsula also provide training for our key managers.

and here's another great offer:

If you are facing an existing unfair dismissal employment tribunal, Peninsula will help you to prepare, they'll represent you and if you don't win - they'll even pay the award.
